Lantern Hill and Hillsborough
ILFRACOMBE.

LL8340

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE — POSTKARTE

By Appointment.

Lantern Hill and Hillsborough. These two heights stand to the eastward of the town. Lantern Hill is crowned by an old chapel of St. Nicholas, and shows a light at high water all the winter months. Hillsborough's superior height protects Lantern Hill as Lantern Hill protects the harbour, and from it may be obtained a fine view along the coast.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

"ILFRACOMBE." Postcard 7839.

"OILETTE"

Raphael Tuck & Sons'

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

CTPA 12.9

Printed in England